BIG COLLEGE NINES
HERE THIS WEEK IN
BASEBALL CONTESTSHarvard, Princeton, Lehigh,
Boston College, and Holy Cross on Yearly Visit.

By BRYAN MORSE.

Harvard, Princeton, Holy Cross, Lehigh, Boston College, and Washington College will be here during the week for baseball games with the local colleges. A few schoolboy games have been carded, but the bigger fellows will be given the right of way in preparation for two weeks of college baseball.

The advent of Harvard and Princeton is always the harbinger of real baseball. Princeton has already shown class in defeating Brown, while Harvard already boasts victories over Boston, Brown, and the Army. The Crimson athletes are tackling the University of Virginia today at Charlottesville, and will be here Thursday to meet Catholic University, while the Maryland Aggies are meeting the Princeton nine.

Georgetown takes on Tufts College at the Hilltop this afternoon. The Navy was beaten by Tufts last week, and on Saturday Catholic University was forced to accept a 2 to 1 defeat after eleven innings. The Blue and Gray has games with Washington College Wednesday, Boston College Thursday, and Princeton on Saturday.

Tomorrow Catholic University faces Boston College, a team always strong in every department. Princeton is battled Thursday, while Holy Cross is played Saturday.

Next week all of the local colleges will have their hands full with visiting teams eager to take a fall out of the baseball productions here. Both C. U. and Georgetown are represented by unusually strong teams. The Hilltoppers have got to lose a start, which speaks well for the development of the nine. But three players from last year's string were on hand at the start of the season.

It is not often that a baseball game is staged for the benefit of a single spectator. Western was recently given a game with the Gallaudet Reserves for the purpose of allowing Kierkegaard to perform for a league scout. The Gallaudet player was inserted in the line-up and showed up especially well.

Young Harry Sullivan, Georgetown's lead-off man, is attracting a deal of attention these days. Sullivan is far in the lead in hitting at Georgetown, and has shown to advantage in the field and on first base. His work has been commendable from every standpoint, and from the very first of the season he has shown himself to be the real find of the season.

Predictions are rife that the youngster will not be long a member of the Georgetown team, as his capability has earned him more than one envious glance from scouts in this section. Sullivan has boosted the ball over the right field stand no less than five times in games this season. His latest feat was on Saturday last, when he single walked the game for the Blue and Gray over the Hopkins team.

After Tech and Western had played to a 12 to 11 score and Business had succumbed to Central by a 18 to 5 score, the game between the two teams was a close one. Sullivan was the largest baseball score in high school games. Not in recent years has a total of 10 been reached although scores have frequently gone to double figures. When Johnny Beall and Everett Ballinger held forth at Tech when the present crop of ball tossers was being warmed up for a christening party, Tech handed Western a beating to the tune of something like 29 to 7. During this contest, or rather fact, Beall knocked the ball over the clubhouse at the old Union League grounds, a feat accomplished only by "Buck" Freeman, then a demon home-run slugger of the American League.

Business High School tennis players are coming in for some joking as they are putting in their time at the C. A. F. Percy, Robert Lynch, Allen Carpenter and John Myers are starting things up and have arranged a schedule as follows:

Western vs. Business, April 13, at Business.

Friends vs. Business, April 29, at Business.

Tech vs. Business, May 5, at Tech.

Central vs. Business, May 20, at Business.

Central vs. Business, May 27, at Central.

Friends vs. Business, May 30, at Friends.

Tech vs. Business, June 9, at Business.

The Stenographers do well in making a beginning, for the prediction has been made that tennis is going to have a big following in the schools in a year or so. All of the high schools and prep schools are represented at

Ted Meredith Is Likely To Come Here to Study

"Ted" Meredith, Penn's great middle distance record holder and captain of the Red and Blue track team, may enter one of the local preparatory schools at the conclusion of his course at Penn, according to Hunter McGuire, former Harvard football star, now studying for examinations here. McGuire says Meredith is thinking of taking examinations for a branch of the navy, and may come here to prep up during the summer. There are many ardent admirers of Meredith in this city who were denied the privilege of seeing him run in the winter meets here and in Baltimore this season.

Present and there will be some good competition unless all signs fail.

H. Norris Williams, 2d, former national champion and captain of the Harvard track team, is here on a visit with the Crimson racquet wielders in a match tomorrow. The personnel of the Harvard team has not been made known, but Williams is sure to be in fine form, as he has been playing on the indoor courts all winter.

Business plays the Georgetown Prep tomorrow, Eastern faces St. Albans in a return game, while Western will probably stage a battle between the first and second teams.

In the belief that Western has a good start, Tom Peyton, captain of the Red and White, will hold hard workouts during the holidays. Western has plenty of candidates this year, and is expected to show a vastly improved team in its next performance.

"Hammy" Blake, one of the best players at Eastern, is ineligible at present, but will be counted upon after the adjournment of the season. Eastern is suffering from a scarcity of pitchers at present. Shields is unable to shake off a bad arm, while Jones and Welsh are inexperienced. Coach Kimball has several exceptional youngsters in tow at present. Willie Thomas is being developed into a first-rate pitcher. Phil Lanthorn is playing the outfield. Phil Lanthorn's work behind the bat is all that could be desired.

CONVENTION FACES
TASK OF SATISFYING
ALLEY ENTHUSIASTSBowling Moguls Meet Tomorrow at Metropolitan Hotel to Decide Requirements.

Tomorrow morning the annual A. C. B. A. convention will be held in the Metropolitan Hotel in this city.

As a meeting of the local chapter of the association held in the tournament building, Sunday morning, C. J. Crossley and George Isemann were chosen delegate and alternate, respectively, to represent the Capital in the deliberations.

One of the questions which has already occasioned much discussion in duckpin circles, namely the return to the old pin and ball, will be taken up. It is considered highly probable by those in close touch with bowling affairs in this city, that the association will adopt the larger pin at least, and possibly the larger ball, although this may meet with some opposition.

A general invitation to the bowling clubs to attend the sessions of the convention has been extended. Impartial opinions as to the style of pin most likely to forward the best interests of the game, are being solicited. Many advocates of the duckpin game assert that the action of the association last year in replacing the existing pins for the smaller variety has materially lowered interest in this style of rolling.

At 3:45 all twelve alleys will be occupied by the contingent from Newark, N. J., in their single competitions. They are all big-pin men. Little is known of their ability in this city, but they may prove to be dark horses, as the duckpin game receives much attention here. All expert performers who will start at 5 o'clock, six singles from Richmond will go on. The boys from the Sunny Southland are rolling with the big minerals.

In the 5:15 session tonight much attention will undoubtedly attend the rolling of the Miah Murray of Boston. The Hub City quint broke into top position in the duckpin class last week with a high set of 162. The team is one of the strongest aggregations in New England at any style of game. Paul Poehler is one of the five rollers—all expert performers—who will face the pins with this crew.

Eight of the pinways in the evening are to be devoted to the octet of teams from Syracuse, N. Y., who will be the big maple-ids. These girls, the maple waters, are always to be found in their proper places, but they cannot stand hard knocks—lose their balance, you know.

The Imperial quint—George Brunt, Passaic, N. J.; R. E. Elston, Jr., Passaic, N. J.; D. E. Passaic, H. Horton, New York; J. Tizzen, New York; J. Tizzen, New York; Glenn Riddell, New York; M. Flannigan, New York; G. Allison, New York; Joe Thane, New York.

zog's Outfit.

CINCINNATI, April 17.—Hal Chase, former manager of the Yankees, who played with the Buffeds last year, made an auspicious debut here yesterday, when he played his first game in organized baseball since he hopped from the White Sox two years ago. Hal demonstrated that he is far from a has-been by playing a splendid game against the Pirates.

When Molitor was sent to the clubhouse for disputing a decision of Hank O'Day, Manager Herzog called Chase from the bench to fill Molitor's place. Chase in three times up made two hits, one a double, stole two bases, scored once and had eight put outs to his credit.

Browns Land First
One in Two SeasonsNose Out White Sox At South Side, 6 to 5, In Wild Helter-skelter Contest.

CHICAGO, April 17.—The Browns in defeating the White Sox here yesterday, 6 to 5, in a wild helter-skelter scramble for the honors, won their first game in this city since 1914. Last year they failed to lead the Sox across the line in one game at the South Side.

Eddie Collins' fumble saved the way for the visitors' first run, and Benz's wildness, with a fumble by Terry which was followed by Pratt's hit, which bounded away from Felsch and went for a double, enabled St. Louis to clinch the game in the fifth inning. The locals started two belated rallies, but sensational fielding by Lavan saved the game for the visitors.

Score by Innings:

	R.	H.	E.
Browns	100	100	000—6 5 0
White Sox	010	000	001—5 3 2

Batteries—Browns, Wellman, Plank, Davenport and Hartley; White Sox, Benz, Russell, Wolfbank, Scott, and Schalk.

CLEVELAND, April 17.—Before an overwhelming throng that packed League Park to its utmost, more than 1,000 fans being turned away, the Indians defeated the Tigers in ten innings yesterday, three times coming from behind and passing the enemy. The score was 4 to 3.

Jim Bagby, the New Orleans recruit, had to be yanked in the fourth, but Fred Coubie's south side giants proved the right medicine for the Tigers. Granev's triple in the tenth, scoring O'Neill, who had singled, gave the home team the victory. Score by Innings:

	R.	H.	E.
Tigers	000	001	000—3 11 2
Indians	000	200	001—4 5 0

Batteries—Tigers, Dugas and Stange; Indians, Bagby, Coubie and O'Neill.
